Also, present was City Administrator Holly Jackson, Police Chief Philip Mostowski, along with several others in the audience.

1. CALL TO ORDER & WELCOME

Mayor Pro Tem Carolyn Wilson called the City Council Meeting to order at 5:30 PM at the Raymond Pridgen Auditorium.

2. FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT DISCLOSURE

Mayor Pro Tem Wilson announced that local media had been properly notified of the meeting in accordance with the South Carolina Freedom of Information Act.

(a). PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE was led by Council Member Eddie Kitchen

(b). INVOCATION was delivered by Council Member Luke Gasque

3. NEW BUSINESS

Administrator Jackson discussed the HVAC unit at The South Carolina Tobacco Museum and how the service technician indicated that a new system was needed. Council discussed getting prices on a new unit from other businesses and also exploring the option of using split units at the Museum.

4. OLD BUSINESS

(a.) FY27 Budget – City Administrator, Holly Jackson

Ms. Jackson presented the budget workbook. Going over the calendar and account types. The workbook and handouts will be attached to these minutes. Discussion included creating revenue, streamlining departments, accounting for a museum curator and many other topics. There were changes to estimated revenue based on current collections and reductions in Departmental Requests.

(b.) Penny Sales Tax Projects – Initial discussion/recommendations

Ms. Jackson presented a list of potential projects. She explained how this is a new round of projects and that the lists from the County and Municipalities in the County will all have projects that will be put on the ballot in November. This is not an additional tax to the already existing Penny Sales Tax, it will be a renewal of that tax. The list she presented will be attached to these minutes.

5. ADJOURNMENT

A motion was made to adjourn by Council Member Kitchen and seconded by Council Member Brewton-Pompey.
