Biography of Pastor Mary Elizabeth Godbolt Campbell

Pastor Mary Elizabeth Godbolt Campbell is a dedicated leader, a passionate community advocate, and a committed educator who has devoted her career to uplifting children, families, and communities through faith, education, and empowerment. She is the Founder and Executive Director of the Shekinah Glory Vision Center, a comprehensive nonprofit organization located in Mullins, South Carolina. Under her leadership, the center has emerged as a pivotal resource, providing vital programs that include a licensed childcare facility, after-school and summer enrichment initiatives, a community food pantry, teen empowerment programs, and outreach services for families.

With over twenty years of practical experience in childcare and community service, Pastor Campbell is recognized for her compassion, unwavering dedication, and strong leadership. She epitomizes service, functioning not only as a pastor but also as a mentor and advocate for families in need. Her mission is predicated on the belief that every child and family deserves access to education, essential resources, and love within a safe and supportive environment.

Currently pursuing a degree in Early Childhood Education from Horry-Georgetown Technical College, Pastor Campbell's academic endeavors illustrate her commitment to professional development and excellence in the field of child development. She actively seeks to enhance her vision of creating inclusive learning environments that foster creativity, character, and self-esteem in every child.

A native of South Carolina, Pastor Campbell embodies the principles of service, faith, and resilience. Alongside her husband, Pastor Roosevelt Campbell, she engages actively in ministry and community outreach, positively impacting lives across Marion and Dillon Counties and beyond. Their combined efforts have established the Shekinah Glory Vision Center as a cornerstone of spiritual and community support, providing food assistance, clothing drives, family engagement programs, and youth development opportunities.
