The ticket books are AWESOME!!! You guys rock!

Ok...how 'bout:

1. A postcard...picture and writing on one side and whatever the post office needs to deliver it to all residents on the other. We are probably talking 2000 at the most.
2. An 8.5" x 5.5" one sided paper made like a sticky note...something our garbage truck workers could slap on the trash cart after they emptied it. Again probably talking 2000 at the most.

Thanks for everything!
